

Pro Series, HIIT Bench

The Pro Series HIIT Bench is designed for both comfort and practicality, offering adjustable incline positions and built-in wheels for easy manoeuvrability. It features integrated dumbbell storage on the sides, along with two additional compartments—one of which is spacious enough to hold battle ropes or kettlebells. A landmine attachment at the end adds even more versatility, making this bench more than just a place to sit. It's a compact, all-in-one HIIT station, perfect for maximising training options while keeping your space organised.
